MEDIA RELEASEEnriching Life Together with "Jom Makan Secara Sihat"

PUTRAJAYA : Pharmaniaga is proud to be one of the main sponsors for "Jom Makan Secara Sihat", a campaign organized by the Ministry of Health to promote healthy living. The objectives of "Jom Makan Secara Sihat" which is to promote healthy living is very much in line with Pharmaniaga's corporate social responsibility project, "mesti ambil tahu!" which encourages people to use knowledge to empower them to take charge of their lives towards living a healthier life.

"As a healthcare company, we strongly believe that empowering the public with knowledge is the cornerstone of creating a healthier community. With the "mesti ambil tahu!" campaign, we aim to educate and guide Malaysians to be more proactive rather than reactive when it comes to their personal health, as well as the health of their loved ones." said Azhar Hussain, Managing Director of Pharmaniaga Berhad after presenting a RM50,000 mock cheque to Dato' Chua Soi Lek, Minister of Health at a ceremony held at the Ministry of Health office, in Putrajaya.

Apart from the RM50,000 sponsorship, Pharmaniaga will also be participating in the "Jom Makan Secara Sihat" nationwide roadshow where "mesti ambil tahu!" booklets on medicine management will be distributed for free. There will also be quizzes, lucky draw and product sampling at Pharmaniaga's booth.

Our commitment to enriching life together is guided by our philosophy of doing business with a conscience; a philosophy we will continue to nurture as we journey towards becoming a global total integrated healthcare solutions provider.
